Weymouth gets in celebration mood

A SEA of red, white and blue across Weymouth and Portland showcased celebrations to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Street parties vied with lunches, garden parties with shows, barbecues and picnics and there was even a giant parade of boats down Weymouth Harbour.

It was the same joyful party from pensioners who remembered and talked about when she came to the throne to exited youngsters barely able to recognise the monarch.

Everywhere buildings and homes were decked out in Union Jacks, cars drove round with small flags fluttering gaily from their windows and there was a wealth of Union Jack hats and costumes.

Any army of fantastic cake creations rubbed shoulders with squadrons of sandwiches and sausage rolls and there were games galore from croquet and fancy dress to quoits and quizzes.

Celebrations reached a climax with a beach bonfire, firework display and the lighting of a beacon on the Nothe Fort at the end of a Queen II tribute band concert.

Mayor Margaret Leicester said: "I think Weymouth and Portland celebrated the Diamond Jubilee in the best possible way."

"There was plenty of fun, plenty of parties and plenty of colour. Best of all, it was a chance for people to meet up with old friends and toast the Queen."

Condor Ferries to return next year

CONDOR Ferries has announced that it intends to return to Weymouth as from March 1st, 2013.

The news has delighted local businesses which Condor said were "crucial" to a resumption of ferry services from the port which is currently working to repair cracks in its quay wall which forced Condor to temporarily move to Poole.

Condor revealed that it will be back in Weymouth in less than nine months time during a visit to Guernsey by Weymouth and Portland Chamber of Commerce which was hosted by Condor, Guernsey Chamber of Commerce and Visit Guernsey.

It was while members visited historic Castle Cornet that they met Condor's passenger division group director Ken Soar who revealed that, following recent talks with Weymouth and Portland council, Condor intended to return to Weymouth as from March 1st, 2012.

Mr Soar emphasised that engagement

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

from local businesses was crucial to Condor's return and he said: "The aim is to make Weymouth the gateway to the Channel Islands.

"I am asking today for the support of the Chamber of Commerce in our intentions to return to operating sailings from Weymouth, once the works on the quay wall have been completed."

Weymouth & Portland Chamber president Anna-Maria Geare said: "This is a very exciting time for Condor Ferries and the Chamber alike. We are honoured that Condor gave us the opportunity to meet and inform us of their plans.

"We back Condor's return 100 per cent as we feel it will be beneficial to all businesses in the local area.."

CRICKET fan Richard Barker lives in West Chinnock with his partner Sally Ann. Together they run Cilla and Camilla in Beaminster.

Here he talks about his cricketing memories, why he loves West Dorset and about his plans for new venture Cilla and Camilla @ home.

■ YOU have played cricket for England schoolboys. Who is the best cricketer you've played against or alongside?

Mike Gatting - former England Captain. I played with three contemporaries who subsequently played international cricket for England. Mike Gatting - former England Captain - he realised his potential; left arm spinner Nick Cook and wicketkeeper Ian Gould. Both Ian and Nick went on to become first class cricket umpires.

■ YOU like to watch rugby and cricket. Do you have any favourite sides and do you have any fond memories of watching them?

England - rather than clubs or counties - and memories are often of unfulfilled potential. The highlight remains watching England win against Australia in the World Cup final of 2003, but memories are often of unfulfilled potential.

■ HAVING worked as an operations director at Watstone's, are you a bibliophile?

Yes, although I don't have as much time to read as I would like, I tend to binge read on holiday. Between myself and my partner Sally Ann, we do own more books than is strictly necessary. We could live in a much smaller space were it not for the excessive requirement for bookshelves.

■ WHAT is your favourite book and why do you like it so much?

I don't have favourites - there are different books for different times.

■ WHAT inspired you to want to move to this part of the country from London?

Quality of life, more space for our money and proximity to my partner's parents. We live in West Chinnock and have become very attached to the South Somerset and West Dorset area. I can't think of a better location for family life.

■ HOW long have you been running Cilla and Camilla in Beaminster and what made you want to and Camilla.

■ WHAT can people look forward to with the opening of Cilla and Camilla @ home, your second shop in Beaminster?

All the wonderful things we would love to stock in Cilla and Camilla but for which we do not have sufficient space. Same quality of service, same slightly idiosyncratic range of stock, and - if the planners give permission - a traditional coffee shop and tea room.

■ HAVE you any goals you still want to achieve in your life?

Scoring a century for England at Lords - unlikely now to happen

■ WHAT was the last thing you watched, listened to and read?

Watched - Champions League final; listened to - new Richard Hawley album and Imagined Village at the Electric Palace; read - Guardian Online

■ HOW would you choose to spend you perfect summer's day?

At Hive Beach with a beer and barbecue listening to England beat Australia on Test Match Special

■ IF you won the lottery what three things would you buy first?

I don't buy lottery tickets - it's not going to happen! If I suddenly had more spare cash, I would employ a gardener. We're lucky to have a fabulous garden but maintaining it is a challenge to my competence and the use of my spare time.

■ IF you were stuck on a desert island, what three things would you want to have with you?

A boat to get off the island - I wouldn't enjoy the solitude; a map to ensure I didn't end up somewhere even less attractive; Sally Ann to help sail the boat (although her map reading skills would probably not be to our benefit).

quit your previous job and open a shop?

We bought Cilla and Camilla in October 2011, always with the intention of having more than one business locally. For four years after we moved, I commuted back to London for my job as General Manager of the Post Office network but I soon realised I was missing out on many of the benefits of living where we do. So, I took redundancy and with my partner, Sally Ann, bought Cilla

'Hardly up to Britain in Bloom standard'

A N Olympic row has erupted after Dorset County Council scrapped plans for colourful floral roundabouts to welcome Games and other visitors to Weymouth and Portland.

The borough council has a distinguished record for floral success including Britain in Bloom awards, but it recently had to hand over responsibility for almost all its roundabouts to county colleagues.

Now Weymouth and Portland environment spokesman Councillor Ian Roebuck has discovered that the county council plans to scrap all high quality floral roundabout displays in favour of a cheap low maintenance option.

He told the View: "I have been told that they plan to seed Manor Roundabout with grass and wildflowers because it has a low maintenance cost."

"It is a cheap approach, but even that has no chance of being ready in time for the Olympic Games which are barely seven weeks away."

Light Veils fail to impress

WEYMOUTH'S high flying new seafront laser lighting system came down to earth with a bump when its launch night failed to impress crowds on the Esplanade.

Public address system problems combined with darkness coming late meant the laser lights didn't show to their best effect despite a superb show just a week before in misty conditions on Mayor Making night.

It was Weymouth and Portland's new Mayor Margaret Leicester who spoke at the official launch when she said the new lights marked "an historic moment".

She also said they were "the first laser lights at a seaside resort and it takes us into the 21st century", adding that she hoped everyone would enjoy them.

But poor conditions created a poor display and a poor public response with spectators comments to officials ranging from "what a load of rubbish" to "bring back the fairy lights".

An earlier press conference to launch the lights pointed out that they

Councillors disappointment over plans to scrap floral roundabouts

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

"Worse, this cost cutting approach to planting will also be carried out for every other roundabout in Weymouth and Portland except Foords Corner in Wyke Regis and Chalbury Corner at Preston where existing sponsorship deals don't expire until later this year when those roundabouts will also come under county control.

"We are the major standard bearer for the Olympic Games outside London and clearly award-winning floral displays, such as those previously seen on Weymouth and Portland roundabouts, would have played a key role in providing as warm and colourful a welcome as possible for our Olympic and holiday visitors.

"But we have gone from planting stocks to being a laughing stock because long grass choking a few undeveloped wildflowers is hardly up to Britain in Bloom standard."

Mr Roebuck added that vigorous talks had failed to sway the county council's approach.

He said: "Manor Roundabout currently looks like an old overgrown lawn with a few dull shrubs in it while roadside banks overlooking the roundabout are choked high with weeds, definitely not the sort of Olympic look we want flashed around the world.

"Weymouth and Portland's roundabouts have been a source of pride for residents while also contributing to the environmental education of our children who have been involved in creating their floral designs for some years now. It is an inspiration for them. What is there now is definitely not an inspiration.

"Sadly residents cannot help with this situation by doing the work themselves because of insurance liabilities."

Advanced works are due to start this month on a £2million repair scheme for the ferry berth area at Weymouth quay.

Contractors working on behalf of Weymouth and Portland council will tackle preliminary works to prepare the quay for major repairs which are scheduled to start in the autumn.

The preliminary works will include removal of the canopy that covers the ferry berth walkway, excavation work to relieve the pressure on the quay wall, partial filling of the scour hole, ground investigation for the main works and screening the site from the Bayside Festival next to the Pavilion.

Initial works will be completed before Olympic sailing events are held in July and August.

Significant structural changes at Weymouth quay were detected in February forcing Condor Ferries, which usually sail from Weymouth to the Channel Islands, to temporarily move operations to Poole.

Engineering consultants, Atkins were appointed by the council to design a scheme to bring the ferry berth back into operation by March 2013.

Yesterday's borough management committee was due to be asked to approve the funding of both the advanced works and major repair scheme, estimated to cost a total of £2 million.

Weymouth and Portland environment spokesman Councillor Ian Roebuck said: "The ferry operation is of vital economic significance to Weymouth and a lifeline service for the Channel Islands, so we are working to ensure that the necessary engineering works happen as quickly as possible.

"These works will not only answer safety concerns about the berth but will provide the basis to enhance the ferry port and secure its future for the long term. As a council, we are actively pursuing sources of external funding to support both these objectives."

Celebrating Her Majesty The Queen's Diamond Jubilee 1952-2012

...in Portland

Red, white and blue tea at Easton

TABLES groaned with home-made scones, cakes and cream teas while plates were piled high with sandwiches and sausage rolls as a Diamond Jubilee afternoon tea was held at Easton Methodist Church hall on Portland.

The events also included outside attractions such as the Brass Tacks brass band and a giant slide in Easton Gardens.

Inside the hall was decked with colour from Union Jack tablecloths to balloons, flags, and special Jubilee decoration displays.

Organiser June Morley and fellow members of Easton Community Group spent two months organising the event.

June said: "Members of the group made the food and it looked lovely and tasted even better!"

■ LUNCH is served

PORTLAND'S picturesque Governors Garden was the venue for a Diamond Jubilee lunch as part of national celebrations to mark the Queen's 60 years on the throne.

The event was organised by Island Play which laid on a pirate play area, a soft play area, family gamers and music and Jubilee themed arts and crafts for children.

Island Play spokesman Debbie Smith said: "Everyone enjoyed themselves particularly the children because they have been learning all about the Diamond Jubilee at school."

"We were lucky with the weather. The wind was a bit of challenge but we're used to that on Portland!"

Queen's award

WATCHKEEPERS at Dorset's four National Coastwatch Institution (NCI) stations are celebrating the honour of being given the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.

It is the highest award given to local volunteer groups across the UK to recognise outstanding work done in their own communities. The honour, which was created in 2002 and is announced each year on the anniversary of the Queen's coronation, has been called "the MBE for volunteer groups".

Dorset four NCI stations include Portland Bill, Peveril Point at Swanage, St Alban's Head and Lyme Bay.

The commitment of their 160 watchkeepers sees them clock up some 10,000 hours of voluntary service during the year.

Portland Bill station manager Geoff Peters, who headed the bid for the QAVS, said: "It is great news for the Dorset NCI Stations and most importantly recognition for the volunteers, not forgetting those people who backed our bid and made it possible. I feel so proud."

NCI was founded in 1994 to support HM Coastguard by keeping a visual and radio watch along the UK's shores. Its members play an essential role in the network that keeps Britain's coast and inshore waters safe for commercial and recreational users, watching for any problems or potential dangers and reporting them to the Coastguard.

NCI receives no money from government or other official sources and relies entirely on contributions from the public.

Coronation memories

UNION Jack bowler hats and bunting decorated a Queen's Diamond Jubilee party at Swannery Court in Weymouth.

Organiser Pearl Allen said the communal lounge was full for the celebration which included singing by Tommy Kenton and some wonderful swan and crown cakes made by Ala Timm.

Outside there were attractions including croquet, quoits, hand massage, didgeridoo playing, a tombola and even a set of stocks.

Among those who remembered watching the 1953 coronation on tiny black and white televisions was Doris Briggs who said she really enjoyed the 2012 celebrations which came one week before her 92nd birthday.

She said: "Those neighbours who didn't have a television came and watched it on ours. The lounge was pretty crowded and everyone was so engrossed that they didn't take their eyes off that tiny screen from beginning to end."

"It was a lovely day then and I have also really enjoyed today. The celebrations here were done ever so well."

MEMORABILIA of the Queen's past 60 years on the throne were brought along when Bluebird Care held a lunch at Weymouth's Nothe Tavern for some of its customers.

Bluebird Weymouth and West

Dorset director Chris Scriven said: "There were mugs, cigarette card collections from the Queen's Coronation and even an original programme.

"We organised this lunch specially because many anniversary celebrations were street parties and our customers are older people who value a quieter celebration.

"We took photos of the lunch and these will be framed for everyone to enjoy."

PLANNERS have backed a Bowleaze Covey scheme to demolish a bungalow and build seven flats in its place despite knowing that waves could be washing it away by 2162.

That timescale was discussed at a meeting of Weymouth and Portland planning committee which heard that the likely rate of coastal erosion meant guidelines for the potential 100-year life of a property meant it would be at least 2112 before the road was affected and at least 2162 before homes were affected.

Weymouth Councillor Kevin Hodder said certain windows needed to be top opening only for privacy reasons.

Councillor Dominic Lonsdale said he was concerned that there were too many homes in too small an area. He added: "As for stability, it is simply a case of "buyer beware"."

Weymouth stages its own flotilla

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

A FANTASTIC flotilla of floating fun and celebrations cruised down Weymouth Harbour to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

More than 200 craft took part in the Parade of Sail led by Weymouth Lifeboat and their salute was taken by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Margaret Leicester.

There was everything from huge vessels to tiny outboards but one and all entered into the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs Leicester said: "It was a wonderful sail past and a really colourful way to mark the Jubilee. All the boats did Weymouth and Portland proud."

Royal Dorset Yacht Club commodore Graham Castell said: "It was a fantastic spectacle for the harbour and for the many thousands of people who lined it to watch the Jubilee flotilla parade go out and come back."

Among those watching was RDYC member Paul Compton whose daughter, Weymouth Carnival Queen Lucy Compton, was on board the motor yacht Beluga.

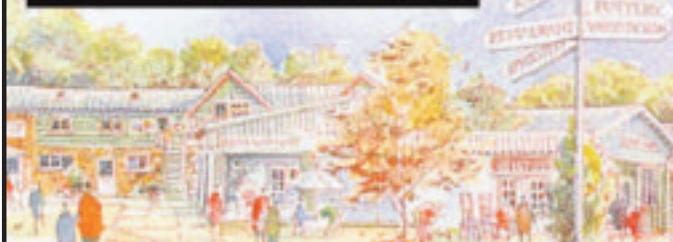

Paul was sporting a special Union flag tie and said: "I bought it in 1977 for the Queen's Silver Jubilee and it's getting another airing now!"

"I was on the Thames yesterday and I can honestly say that Weymouth today is every bit as good. The colours are amazing."

BLANKETS were laid down and foil and food boxes opened as everyone on Weymouth's Nothe Gardens settled down to enjoy their Diamond Jubilee Big Lunch.

The event, staged by Weymouth and Portland council, attracted scores of people to join in celebrations and listen to new Weymouth band Mixer.

There were also games and competitions for children who also had a chance to make a crown or explore a display of military vehicles.

Council spokesman Charlie Sheppard said: "It was a fantastic afternoon to celebrate the Jubilee and the weather stayed dry for us.

Celebrating Her Majesty The Queen's Diamond Jubilee 1952-2012

...in WeymouthLoving it in Littlemoor

■ BEAUTIFUL PRINCESSES: Bethney and Zoe McGowan get into the party spirit watched by Rose Donnelly and a tearful Liam who wasn't so keen on the celebrations

A PUPPET show, a magician and a mountain of food were laid on for a Jubilee street party at Weymouth's Littlemoor Community Centre (above).

The event was organised by Littlemoor Community Action Group and Synergy's 3 Zone Neighbourhood Panel.

Co-organiser Jan Hinton said: "More than 100 children attended, there were even more adults and everyone had a wonderful time."

"We had a special cake, Moor Voices choir gave us some songs, there was a children's fancy dress parade and a bouncy castle.

"It was a lovely family event which went on into the night with a disco playing music from the 1950s when the Queen was crowned right up to modern times."

Celebrating at St Paul's

MORE than a dozen stalls graced a Jubilee garden party at St Paul's Church, Weymouth.

There was African jewellery, bric-a-brac, plants, a bouncy castle, tombola, raffles, toys, paintings, wood-work, books, cards and a raffle and cakes.

Spokesman Jeanne James said: "Many people dressed up specially in red, white or blue to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

"We normally have a garden party around this time of year and we thought it would be ideal this year to hold it over the Jubilee. All proceeds will go to the upkeep of St Paul's."

Among those there was Grace Orman (pictured right) who remembers the coronation as a 16-year-old.

She said: "I saw it at the cinema because we didn't have a television in those days.

"If you'd told me then that she'd still be Queen 60 years later I would not have believed you, but I am glad she is. She has been a truly great Queen."

"The time for thinkers has come"

Frank Prinz-Wondollek started his career in Hamburg as a lawyer, before devoting all his time to spiritual healing once he realised that a higher spiritual law underlies life. He now speaks to a variety of audiences, showing the how and why of prayer based healing.

'A Spiritual Perspective of Freedom in Sport and in Life'

Many people today may feel exposed to life's challenges, victims of circumstance, which buffets them about, making them feel they have no control. International speaker Frank Prinz-Wondollek says "I have found that a better understanding of our spiritually identity, individuality and our Divine source brings a sense of peace and freedom with far-reaching and practical effects".

Community event 'for the monarch who has done so much'

CRAFTS and cream teas provided tasty Jubilee celebrations at Wyke Regis, Weymouth.

More than a dozen stalls filled the Memorial Hall including tombola, bags, jams, olives, soaps, wines and even a chance to win a Mini.

Anyone feeling peckish was first able to tuck into cream teas at All Saints Church to music from the Brass Tacks brass band and then get rid of some calories at a barn dance in the Square.

Wyke councillor Kate Wheller said: "It was a really nice community event for a monarch who has done so much for communities all over the country."

"The celebration recognised that and allowed people to say a special thank-you."

Those delicious cream teas at All Saints were organised by Julia

Moore who said: "We thought it would be a lovely way to say thank-you to the Queen if we held a cream tea event and donated the proceeds to the Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Trust, so that's what we did."

"It proved so popular that we were rushed off our feet, definitely, but it has been a lovely day from a church service right through to tonight's barn dance."

Party in the park

ADONICA Evans and Philip Grout-Smith on the cake stall

DOZENS of children gathered when a Jubilee Picnic in the Park was held near Weymouth's Radipole Park Drive Gardens.

Among attractions were a bouncy castle, cakes, a tombola, crown making, face painting, sweets and drinks all enjoyed to music from the James Kimber Junk Band.

Friends of Radipole Park and Gardens Philip Grout-Smith said: "Our main concern was the weather and we got away with it because it was cloudy but dry. That was the key."

"It was lovely to see so many people here and all proceeds will go towards maintaining our orchard and planting some wild flowers."

Beacon and fireworks

QUEEN II Tribute Band came all the way from Sheffield to play a sell-out concert at Weymouth's Nothe Fort ending with the Jubilee beacon being lit.

Picnics were hungrily consumed before the concert when the band fulfilled all expectations, the audience sang and danced and loved every minute of it.

Then the youngest members of the Fort Artillery led representatives from the Air Cadets, Sea Cadets, Girls Brigade, Scouts and Guides for a guard of honour signalling the lighting of the beacon at the Fort as part of a national series of beacons all round the country.

Weymouth and Portland Mayor Margaret Leicester said "It was wonderful to watch so many people enjoying the music and atmosphere of the fort."

The National Anthem was played by "Brian May" from the top of the ramparts and fireworks were then lit while Queen II played 'We are the Champions' for a fantastic end to a memorable evening.

Chris Rudge Renewables

RECENT Government announcements have now firmed up the future of Solar PV Feed in Tariff's (FiT). After April 1st the 21p FiT rate will continue till June, you'll need to obtain an EPC certificate declaring your premises are at Energy Band D or better to qualify for the full 21p rate. Rudge Renewables, they are offering their customers a 'Get Your D for Free' offer, providing a EPC survey and certificate at no cost, which will be valid not only for a PV system after April 1st, but any other renewable technology you may want to install later!

Solar panel prices are continuing to fall, and further price drops are anticipated right through the year, making Solar PV very attractive with Return on Investment at 10% or more for southerly facing roofs. Remember though that Feed in Tariffs are due to drop again in July to a lower level, so an early installation will ensure you earn the current FiT rate.

In addition, the Government have announced an extension to the popular Renewable Heat Prepayment scheme which is offering cash payments for people installing Solar Hot Water, Heat Pumps, and Biomass (wood burning) boilers to replace fossil fuels.

Rudge Renewables are able to provide free surveys for Solar PV, Solar Thermal, Wind Turbines, Heat Pumps and Wood chip/pellet installations. With over 5 years of experience installing renewables plus an expertise in battery backed systems for customers with no mains power connection. Installation costs are always kept as low as possible for local customers.

CABARET AND JAZZ FROM CHARLIE BICKNELL AT NEXT 115 CLUB

BRIDPORT'S only Dedicated Dinner & Music Venue, the 115 Club, last week celebrated yet another great performance, this time Julie Dunn returned for her second visit, accompanied by Ben Waghorn, between them performing some fine Jazz, a mix of classic & Contemporary, using the sounds of the Keyboards, Sax, Flute & Julie's pitch perfect vocals.

The next instalment, on Thursday, June 7th, is that of Charlie Bicknell. A stunning Cabaret style act, Charlie infuses the cabaret from London's West End with Jazz, accompanied by David Harrod on Keyboards & local performer, Clive Ashley on Sax.

The concert should retain the Jazz feel, but offer something a little special for those lovers of Cabaret. Charlie is highly regarded in her genre as one of the finest, performing at multiple venues and concerts nationally including Pizza in the Park and Chelsea arts club, having rave reviews to her name including Godfrey Smith of the Times Newspaper who said "A classy young Chanteuse in whom sex and wit, style and charm make a high octane mix. Enjoy the ride."

What more can be said but to book now, tables for the pre-performance dinner are going fast, and you would kick yourself to miss this one.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7pm and 8pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2pm and 6pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge – anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9pm.

Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums open mic tour comes to Dorchester

JACK Harrison is a twenty-three-year-old writer, guitar player and singer. He has spent a number of years moving between the South West and the South East, passing through other towns and cities along the way, meeting folks, making sense, losing touch, believing in songs. He writes and sings on many topics, from madness and love, through to medication and economic flailing and plays guitar with a percussive, fingerpicking technique, influenced by the likes of Paul Simon, Bert Jansch, Bob Dylan, Nick Drake and other performing songwriters of this ilk.

Jack often plays shows with his long-time musical collaborator Joseph Trudeon's Jack Kerouac inspired collective, 'the Dharma Bums' who weave between genres including blues, alternative, country, jazz, folk, folk-rock and psychedelia.

Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums will be hosting open mic nights at Sydney Arms in Dorchester on Friday, June 12th at 9pm, and at Woods Wine Bar, Yeovil on Saturday, June 16th. Performers of all levels and styles, players of any instrument (Jew's Harp to Mongolian Spittle Reed) and enjoyers of folk, blues, jazz, country, alternative and beyond are welcomed.

Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums will also a perform at No. 10 Cafe Bar, Bridport on Friday, July 6th at 9pm, as part of their acoustic tour. The tour goes ahead in association with JSW Promotions and Cut Magazine UK.

To listen to, and contact, Jack Harrison and the Dharma Bums before the event, find them on facebook, or visit www.jackharrisonmusic.co.uk

Tools to handle life's challenges

Explore a spiritual perspective – Watch the wind – trim your sails!

WEYMOUTH: Because the harbour at Weymouth is exposed to reliable winds from all directions and at the same time holds a sheltered position it is one of the official locations for the sailing competitions during the Olympic Games. Many people today may feel exposed to life's challenges, victims of circumstance, which buffets them about making them feel they have no control. International lecturer Frank Prinz-Wondollek says, "I've found that a better understanding of our spiritual identity, individuality, and Divine source brings a sense of peace and freedom with far-reaching and practical effects."

Prinz-Wondollek, a practitioner of Christian Science healing, presents a free talk, "Sailing with the wind – a spiritual perspective of freedom in sport and in life," on Sunday, 17th June, 2012 at 3.00 p.m. in The Pavilion, Seafront, Weymouth, DT4 8ED. Sailing gives the feeling of freedom and Frank had made this deep experience of feeling freedom like sailing with the wind through Christian Science.

During his talk Frank says, "I will share, through personal experiences, how understanding our connection to God and our true identity and individuality leads to new inspiration bringing a fuller sense of freedom."

Prinz-Wondollek's ideas are based on the teachings of Jesus as recorded in the Bible, and as discussed in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy the discoverer of Christian Science.

Frank Prinz-Wondollek started his career as lawyer in Hamburg, before he began to devote all his time to spiritual healing as explained in Christian Science. While reading and studying the book Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures he found spiritual laws which he learned to apply to his own life. At first sceptical about these laws, he found quick healing and a deep freedom from daily problems involving relationships and dependencies such as use of medication and smoking. His scepticism gave way to a deeper awareness and understanding that a higher spiritual law underlies life. Now a practitioner of Christian Science healing, he is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Prinz-Wondollek speaks internationally to a variety of audiences showing the how and why of prayer-based healing.

BareBulb Theatre bring 'Contractions' to Dorchester

MIKE Bartlett's ink-black comedy 'Contractions', considers the boundaries between work and play. Originally premiered at the Royal Court Theatre London in 2008, this production by BareBulb Theatre provides an unsettling but ultimately enjoyable insight into the power of big business and unscrupulous corporations.

Set within the cold white walls of The Managers office, we observe over the 55 minutes duration of the play, how a seemingly innocent employee appraisal turns into something a little more sinister.

We watch the changing relationship between the super-efficient Manager and sweet new employee Emma whose every movement is analysed and catalogued. In fourteen short scenes we see the systematic stripping away of her dignity and self-respect as she fights to keep her job and relationship. The highly original and poignant ending is one to provoke thought and stimulate question.

'Contractions' will be on at Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday, June 15th at 8.00pm as part of a South West tour.

Tickets available from Dorchester Arts Centre box office: (01305) 266926, and cost £7 or £5 (conc). Seating is restricted to 50 so please book in advance.

ON THE BANKS OF THE SEINE

A magical and mysterious, dark and beautiful cabaret-with-a-difference at The Lyric Theatre

FANCY a stroll around the back streets of Paris, a tour of underground Buenos Aires and some show-stopping chansons without having to cross the English Channel? Bi-lingual Jazz/cabaret singer-songwriter Bethany Jameson and master accordionist Romano Viazzani are bringing their stunning new show, On the Banks of The Seine, to Bridport's Lyric Theatre on Saturday, June 30th. There will be a matinee at 2.30pm with French nibbles and an evening performance at 8pm with an invite to dress up for a Moulin Rouge-themed evening.

Originally created as a commission for the London Bastille Day Festival in 2009, On the Banks of The Seine went down a storm with critics and audience as a duo concert, performed by Bethany and Romano. It is now a full evening of Cabaret, music and song and the duo is now a quartet. Bethany says, "The new songs are in the modern cabaret tradition that includes Fascinating AIDA, Tim Minchin and Camille O'Sullivan, but also doffs a cap to past masters of Variety, Morecombe and Wise. We're not quite as 'blue' or experimental as some of the more extreme acts out there. We focus on making gorgeous music, getting to know our audiences and having fun, and in our dignified if slightly wicked way, make a point on a few subjects that matter to us."

The show mixes some compelling storytelling (in English) with gorgeous French chansons and sultry Tangos (1930s to modern day) as well as the cabaret songs. The signature song 'Just Her Younger Man' was judged 'a showstopper' by London Fringe Theatre. Bethany adds "Our new songs cover politics, the beauty products myth, looking after aging parents and getting old disgracefully. The chansons and Tango pieces are about the poor and downtrodden of the harbours and back streets so there's plenty of humour but it's fairly black!"

The new team members are well known and respected musicians in their own right and much in demand, so they cover the performances between them. The virtuoso violinists are Declan Daly (classical, jazz and folk, recorded for Lord of the Rings and Harry Potter) and Sarah Harrison (Mazaiqa, Fascinating AIDA, gypsy jazz and tango styles). The exceptional double bass players are Nick Pini (Puppini Sisters, Alan Pownall, Soko, Mitch Winehouse, Laura Marling and Jac Jones) and Neil Charles (Ex-Tomorrow's Warrior, former member of Empirical, Leader of Zed-U: classical double bass and electric jazz bass).

Theatre co-owner, Niki McCretton, said, "We're really excited and proud to be able to have this enchanting and unique show here at The Lyric. We are pleased to be able to present a matinee performance as well as the evening show by popular request from local people!"

On the Banks of The Seine will be performed at Bridport's Lyric Theatre (9 Barrack Street DT6 3LX), with performances at 2.30pm (matinee) and 8pm. Tickets cost £11 and £9 (concessions) from www.bethanyjameson.co.uk or www.the-lyric.com, by phone on 01308 423951, e-mail tickets@the-lyric.com or pop into The Lyric, Fruits of The Earth (Victoria Grove, Bridport) or Bridport Music (South St, Bridport).

Dorset County Museum celebrates Diamond Jubilee

TO CELEBRATE the Diamond Jubilee of HM Queen Elizabeth II, Dorset County Museum has set up a new display in its beautiful Victorian Gallery.

The display features objects from the Museum's own collections together with items lent to the Museum by Dorchester residents. There are programmes and souvenirs commemorating the Coronation in 1953 and memorabilia from other Royal celebrations including Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897.

The Museum's popular Tea Room has also been given a facelift for the occasion. Repainted and recently carpeted, the room now features a selection of rare photographs of The Queen's visit to Dorchester in July 1952 – on one of the first official tours she made after becoming Queen. Do you remember being at Maumbury Rings or Poundbury Farm on that day? If so, you may be in one of the photos.

In addition there are photographs of Dorchester's parade to celebrate the Coronation on 2 June 1953. There are several shots of crowds enjoying the parade and of children happy to be out of school for the day – if you were at this celebration, maybe enjoying watching the floats in Icen Way, why not pop in and see if you appear in any of the pictures – if you do, please let us know – we would be most interested to hear from you!

The Museum shop is also worth a visit – visitors will find a whole range of interesting and unusual gift ideas including Jubilee souvenirs. Entry to the shop and Tea Room is free, so why go along and have a look around? The Museum is open from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Saturday including Bank Holidays. All visitors are very warmly welcomed.

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM AT DORSET COUNTY MUSEUM: RE-VISITING SYLVIA TOWNSEND WARNER

SYLVIA Townsend Warner was a highly individual writer of novels, short stories and poems who lived in Dorset for much of her life. Born in 1893 she contributed short stories to the New Yorker for more than 40 years.

On Friday, June 29th the University of Exeter and the Sylvia Townsend Warner Society are jointly running a one-day International Symposium devoted to her work. Keynote speakers include Mary Joannou of Anglia Ruskin University and Jan Montefiore of the University of Kent.

The symposium runs from 9am to 6pm and will be held at Dorset County Museum.

Tickets cost £20 for members of the Sylvia Townsend Warner Society and Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society and £35 for non-members plus a booking fee of £1. All tickets are available from the Museum shop on 01305 756827 or by email from shop@dorsetcountymuseum.org. For further information please contact the organisers on stwconference2012@exeter.ac.uk.

At 3pm on Saturday 30 June there will also be a concert at the Museum to celebrate Sylvia Townsend Warner's musical achievements. The programme will feature some of her own compositions, some of the works she edited for the Tudor Church Music project and compositions by her friends. At the centre of the programme will be the UK premiere of a setting to music of Azrael, one of her best-loved poems. There will also be readings from Sylvia Townsend Warner's works and letters. Tickets cost £8 and are available from the Museum shop as before. Tickets will also be sold on the door. The concert is expected to last approximately two hours.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy Night at Dorset County Museum

ENCOURAGED by the large and enthusiastic audiences at his recent lunchtime concerts at Dorset County Museum, pianist Mike Denham is to bring his successful Speakeasy Nights to Dorchester.

Mike, at the grand piano in the Museum's splendid Victorian Hall, welcomes a guest of the highest calibre to play the great music of the Jazz Age. On this occasion, his guest is Steve Graham, one of the UK's top traditional jazz trumpeters and a fine ragtime mandolin player. The two men have a great rapport, which they will demonstrate in a programme of ragtime, jazz and boogie-woogie ranging from the melodic and refined to the hot and dirty!

Those who have attended one of Mike's concerts before will know how his entertaining stories about the music add spice to the presentation.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy Night comes to Dorchester on Friday, June 8th at 8pm. Music tickets are £12 from the Museum (01305 262 735). There will be a bar, and a tasty pre-show supper (£9.50) may also be booked (a week in advance please).

For more details on Mike visit www.mikedenham.co.uk

Nothe Fort Artillery Visit Cerne Abbas Fête

THIS year's Church Fête will be on Saturday, July 7th, at 1.30pm in the Vicarage Gardens in Back Lane, Cerne Abbas.

The Nothe Fort Artillery Volunteers in their splendid artillery uniforms will fire their cannon to open the Fête. It may not be 1872, with Queen Victoria on the throne of England. However throughout the year, when the Nothe Fort Artillery are on parade, it is quite easy to imagine you have travelled back almost one and a half centuries in time.

The gates will open at 1.30pm for a Hog Roast and refreshment from the Pimms Tent to sustain you for the exciting afternoon to come!

There will be stalls, games and competitions for all ages and lots more too, including classic cars and steam engines.

After all the fun you can relax with a cream tea and cakes on the lawn.

The Grand Draw will be held at 3.45pm.

colours to the UK for the first time; BMW Individual Japan Red with a Frozen Red wrap, BMW Individual Frozen White and BMW Individual Frozen Blue. All are on sale now. To complement the striking exterior colours, all M5 M Performance Editions come with Full Black Merino leather upholstery and all M3 M Performance Editions come with extended Black Novillo leather upholstery, both trasting Mugello Red, Lotus White or Tobago Blue stitching as standard.

Floor mats with contrast piping, an Alcantara steering wheel, BMW Individual Piano Black interior trim with a 'One of 30' laser cut designation, front headrests with M stitching and door sills with 'BMW M Performance Edition' designation complete the look of the interior.

The new BMW M3 M Performance Edition features BMW's class-leading 420hp V8 engine with power transferred to the road via a standard seven-speed M DCT transmission and variable M differential. The car also comes with the Competition Package as standard, which features 10mm lowered suspension, Electronic Damper Control with Sport mode and a revised DSC+ system.

Additionally, the BMW M3 M Performance Edition

boasts an array of extra standard equipment including: 19-inch M Y-spoke Matt Black alloy wheels, Dark Chrome exhaust, side gills and kidney surround, jet black bonnet intakes, carbon-fibre front splitters, high-gloss Shadowline exterior trim, folding exterior mirrors and sun protection glass to complement its unique exterior. Adaptive headlights, DAB digital radio, a Harman/Kardon 13-loudspeaker system, BMW Professional Media Package, mobile application preparation, telephone USB audio interface and Internet add to the M3's practicality.

While the sliding front armrest, front seat heating and front and rear Park Distance Control complete the package. The extensive list of equipment, now standard, is worth £9,790.

The new BMW M5 M Performance Edition features BMW's latest 560hp TwinPower Turbo V8 engine complete with race-bred chassis technology including an Active M differential and electronic damping control. Combining track-car dynamics with supreme touring comfort, the new BMW M5 M Performance Edition includes £22,075 worth of additional equipment as standard.

For this added value 20-inch M Double-spoke Matt Black alloy wheels, Dark Chrome exhaust, side gills and kidney surround, M Sport multi-function seats with lumbar support, powered bootlid operation, sun protection glass, split-folding rear seats, comfort access and soft close doors add to the already impressive standard equipment list. A reversing assist camera, High-beam assistant, Internet, BMW Professional 12-loudspeaker system, telephone USB audio interface, mobile application preparation and speed limit display complete this exclusive model.

INSIDE EDGE - DORSET CRICKET ROUND-UPWITH STUART BROOM*Belt batters ton in gritty run-chase*Dorset Funeral Plan League*Premier League*DORCHESTER 244-4 BEAT WINTON 240-9*BY SIX WICKETS

DORCHESTER returned to winning ways thanks to an unbeaten century from all-rounder Dan Belt after newly promoted Winton had posted a difficult target for the county town.

James Dunham (1-14) made an early breakthrough when Winton batted, trapping George Wright for a single with only seven on the board, but M Clarke (56) and J Duke (82) added 154 for the second wicket to put them in command.

However it was Jon Legg that made the breakthrough getting Clarke and with Quenton Miller (3-42), two of them superb stumpings by Stuart Voss, halted their progress and with James Lewis (3-34) mopping up the tail, the Bournemouth side set Dorchester a target of 241 for victory.

After the loss of Lewis (10), Steve Gerety hit a brisk 33 with an array of strokes around the ground, but his dismissal saw Belt join Ian Sibley, and between them they added 130 for the third wicket.

With Sibley (28) playing the anchor role, Belt set about the Winton bowling to ensure Dorchester stayed ahead of the run rate should the drizzle become heavier, and despite slippery conditions they did a superb job in setting up the win.

Duke (2-52) eventually trapped Sibley and Sam Goodhew (7) but Miller (21 not out) joined Belt for an unbroken partnership of 51 to ease Dorchester to victory with almost 13 overs to spare.

Skipper Martyn Richards said: "Whilst we did not underestimate them, they did take us a little by surprise and bat really well, and are a much better team than people have given them credit for."

"Clarke and Duke are both young players who paced their innings well, and taught us the importance of compiling innings to last 50 overs.

"It was drizzling at tea, so we are grateful for both Winton and the umpires for agreeing to continue; they could have pulled the plug on the game, but instead were happy to carry on."

"Dan Belt's innings was superb. His timing of the ball was spot on and he never looked like getting out and with Ian Sibley they put us in the driving seat. Steve Gerety was also invaluable."

"He set the tone after we had lost a couple of wickets by hitting a six and four 4's very quickly to get the run rate up in case the game was affected by the rain getting heavier, and he was unlucky to get out in the way he did."

WEYMOUTH 191 ALL OUT LOST TO COLEHILL & WIMBORNE 130-5 WHO WON ON A FASTER SCORING RATE

RAIN possibly robbed Weymouth of being the first side to defeat Wimborne & Colehill this season.

Chasing a total of 191, the league leaders were staring at possible defeat at 118-5 when rain intervened, stopping play for an hour, before, after returning for two hours, the game was abandoned.

Unfortunately by that time the visitors, who had been struggling at 75-4 were ahead of the run rate thanks to a fifth wicket partnership of 55 between the unbeaten Ben Bridgen (60 not out) and Francis Kerins (11) that gave them the match.

It would have been interesting had rain not intervened whether in fact Wimborne would have reached Weymouth's total.

Weymouth were indebted to a knock of 60 by Paul Payne who held their innings together. Ben Lawes (22) helped Payne early on after the early loss of Dean Janaway (2) and Hayden White (9). However Oliver d'Erlanger-Bertrand's (4-31) removed Ben Lawes and Keiron Womble for a duck but useful contributions from Matt Lawes (22), Jim Ryall (22) and Dan Hutchens (24), helped swell the Seasiders total.

Although there were good bowling performances from Matt Lawes (1-31), Dave Trotter (1-41) and Hutchens (2-38), the rain put a dampener on any chance Weymouth might have had of claiming victory outright.

Division TwoCHRISTCHURCH 130-5 BEAT BEAMINSTER 126 ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS

CAPTAIN Will Everitt had a real struggle to field a side for the trip to Christchurch and was grateful for the help of three of the club's up and coming young players, Dave Percy, Andrew Livingston and Nick Hill.

Some indifferent batting at the top of the order saw Beaminster on the back foot.

But a tenacious half-century from Ritchie Runyard backed up with some support from Simon Jones (14) and Ross Baker (13) saw them muster 126 all out, with opening bowler Cross (4-14) returning to mop up the tail leaving Runyard 57 not out.

Baker (2-40) and Jones (1-30) suggested that Beaminster might pick up some batting points, but opener Malone (39) and the home captain Rayner (31 not out) steadied the ship with a useful fourth wicket partnership.

Although Beaminster captain Will Everitt dismissed Malone in his first over, Jeans quickly thrashed 26 before Everitt (2-18) also claimed him as a victim, before the hosts eased home.

Everitt said: "We were always up against it with such a changed side from previous weeks, but did the best we could. A good knock from Richie Runyard was a promising sign that form is coming back to him, but unfortunately a misfiring top order was our downfall again. However we will be strengthened next week with the return of opener Freddie Everitt and strike bowler Tom Goatly."

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 105-2 BEAT DORCHESTER 2ND 103 ALL OUT BY EIGHT WICKETS

DORCHESTER batted first on a hard but very green wicket and Ian Legg and Matt Porter found it hard to get the score going with Wimborne's opening bowlers moving the ball and coming through at a steady pace.

Legg was finally trapped lbw and whilst Rhys Cole looked to continue his good form, he lost Porter as they tried to increase the run rate.

The introduction of the spinners proved equally difficult for the Dorchester batsmen with their good line and flight proving difficult to get them away. Although most made starts they became frustrated by their accuracy and were dismissed to rash shots and were dismissed for 103 all out.

Despite Pete Phillips picking up a couple wickets and a good spirit in the field, the small target was difficult to defend and the hosts eased home with comfort.

Captain Stuart Beasley said: "It was a crucial toss to win on a hard, green wicket. We knew it was going to be tough batting, but credit to the lads who kept battling, but the score was nowhere near enough."

"We have a few things that need to be worked on this week and come back stronger on Saturday."

SHILLINGSTONE 264-5 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 148 ALL OUT BY 116 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN lost their top of the table clash with Shillingstone who were indebted to a century from M Salisbury.

Salisbury formed the backbone to their innings sharing an opening stand of 90 with N Marshall (28) and then 62 and 84 with J Thorne (29) and I Pauley (43) before he became Danny Dancer's first victim for a solid 124.

Opening bowlers Chris Read (1-55) and Dancer (2-55) were unlucky not to have success in their opening spells and all the bowlers including Danny Way (2-77) came in for some punishment.

Martinstown were soon in trouble in reply with both openers Ed Nichols (2) and Lee House (11) back in the pavilion with just 17 on the board and that got worse when Henry Lewis (8) departed to leave them 25-3.

Skipper Dancer (53) tried to steady the ship with a fine half century, but only Rob O'Brien (22) and D Evans (18) able to muster much of a resistance, they were bowled out for 148 with M Meaden claiming 4-22.

Dancer said: "I lost another toss, but I felt we were unlucky not to take wickets in the first 10-15 overs where I felt Read and I bowled pretty good opening spells. With wickets in hand they played aggressively and, despite some good bowling at the death posted 264-5.

"I felt they had scored about 60-80 too many, but the wicket was good and the outfield was fast, so I didn't think we were out of the game yet.

"However I found myself making my way to the crease in only the 8th over having lost three early wickets, and by that point I was hoping for the forecast rain to arrive in abundance.

"Unfortunately it didn't arrive in time and although Rob O'Brien and myself put on a decent partnership we were never close enough to the rate and didn't have the wickets in hand.

"Credit to Shillingstone for out playing us on the day in all departments, we hope we can bounce back next week at home to Witchampton."

CRANBORNE 226 ALL OUT BEAT WEYMOUTH 2ND 141 ALL OUT BY 85 RUNS

ANOTHER poor batting display which saw Weymouth dismissed for 141 saw Weymouth slipped to the bottom of the league.

Batting first Cranborne struggled against the tight bowling of captain Michael Pearce who only conceded 16 off his seven overs, and 19-year-old Tim Guyett who showed what a good prospect he can be with 5-44 from his ten overs.

At 62-4 the hosts were struggling, but a fifth wicket stand of 73 between D Coy (33) and D Prince (51), both victims of another fine prospect, 16-year-old Harry Mitchell (3-44), recovered the situation. M Harris (39 not out) with a late flurry boosted their total.

Weymouth lost Dave Kiteley (2) and Graham Puckett (8) early on, but David Pearce (34) and Mike Buggust (29) gave them hope. Unfortunately only Michael

■ Five-for: Buddy Langford

Pearce batting at 11, with a swift 17 not out, was able to contribute much as Weymouth fell well short of their target.

Pearce said: "Once again our batting let us down; we are just not scoring enough runs. However Tim Guyett and Harry Mitchell both bowled exceptionally well."

DIVISION THREEBROADSTONE 3RD 181-9 BEAT BRIDPORT 165 ALL OUT BY 16 RUNS

BRIDPORT suffered some inconsistent batting in their narrow 16 run defeat at Broadstone 3rd's.

Replying to the home teams target of 181-9, they were well ahead of the required run rate but lost wickets in clusters to put themselves back in trouble.

Batting first Broadstone 3rd's faced some tight bowling from Wes Lewis (1-30) and Dom Gape (3-41) which saw the hosts 33-2 after 15 overs, and at 54-4 things looked bright for Bridport.

However a 67 run fifth wicket stand between opener Rogers (53) and Tarr (31) gave Broadstone a boost, before a mid-order collapse.

A late 33 from Manley, who was out to the last ball of the innings, saw them post a not out score with Marcel Grunschloss (2-37) the most successful of the other Bridport bowlers.

Dave Herbert (33) and skipper Liam Toohill (12) gave the visitors a solid start in reply but the loss of Herbert's wicket which saw them 79-4 was a blow as they were still well ahead of the rate required. When Ed Halson went next ball it was left to Grunschloss to hold the innings together.

He got support from Gape (17) and Lewis finished 18 not out, and although Bridport on reaching 165 earned three extra points for getting within ten per cent of the winning score, it was a game they felt they should have won.

Toohill said: "Their fifth wicket stand took the game away from us a bit but the score was manageable. We were well ahead of the rate, but kept losing wickets in clusters on an indifferent pitch."

PARLEY 2ND 122 ALL OUT LOST TO CATTISTOCK 249-4 BY 127 RUNS

CATTISTOCK lost the toss and were put in to bat against an opening attack that included Tom Brackley who had a trial with Middlesex last season.

Despite his hostile speed he failed to unsettle openers Nick Roe (51) and Billy Walbridge (46) who put on 128 for the first wicket with Brackley (0-49) unable to contribute.

Cattistock lost a couple more quick wickets as they looked to push the score on but another century stand, this time an unbeaten 102 between Martin Langford (45 not out) and Ben Golledge (48 not out) saw them set Parley 2nd's a challenging total they were never going to reach.

Lee Anderson (3-28) took a wicket in the first over of their reply from which they never recovered.

With Martin Langford taking 2-20 from the other end softening them up, the introduction of Buddy Langford in the 22nd over was the final blow as he finished them off with 5-25 in 6.4 overs which sees Cattistock move joint top with Compton House.

Division Five North & WestDORCHESTER 3RD BEAT MARNHULL 2ND WHO SCRATCHED

MARNHULL 2nd were unable to raise a team and scratched from the fixture giving Dorchester 3rd's victory and 20 points.

PORTLAND RT 2ND 225-7 BEAT SHILLINGSTONE 2ND 137-7 BY 88 RUNS

PORTLAND topped league leaders Shillingstone in a rain affected match at the Windowman Oval.

After winning the toss Portland skipper Grant Neven had no hesitation in electing to bat and was rewarded with openers L West (49) and David Males (65) forging an opening stand of 115. A hard hitting 43 from Pete Lamming, well supported by Aaron Riley (17 not out) enabled Portland to post a competitive target of 226.

Portland were soon up against it losing opening bowler Simon Bendall to a hand injury in the second over, but with the rain continuing to threaten, replacement bowler Marco Nott (4-34) made early inroads to the visitors line up, as ten man Portland produced another outstanding display in the field.

With the dismissal of M Abel for a defiant and mature innings of 66 by Pete Williams, Shillingstone's cause looked lost as the required run rate continued to rise.

Portland were denied the full 20 points when with Shillingstone still needing 88 for victory off 9 overs, the heavens opened once again to bring the game to a premature end.

Skipper Neven had nothing but praise for his charges. "This was another great all round effort. Losing Simon early on was a big loss, but the team rose to the challenge and produced the goods."

Weymouth Basketball Club has been continuing to develop its junior coaching programme, promoting basketball across South Dorset and was able this year to send a dozen players at various age groups.

Throughout the day players were put through a minimum of four hours of training, testing their skill, conditioning and determination in front of regional coaches.

Though all of Weymouth's representatives were not fortunate enough to be offered places, three players were given the opportunity, all at U13 level; Josh Westlake (Budmouth Col-

Hinde shines in Islanders defeat

Portland Red Triangle U11s 256 Weymouth 226

WEYMOUTH began slowly against the accurate bowling of Joe Adkins and Thomas Hinde and found runs difficult to come by as the young Portland side fielded well.

Weymouth continued to struggle to find runs and Charlie Durant claimed his first wicket for Triangle as Portland continued to dominate with the ball, and Weymouth's innings closed on an accumulated total of 226.

Joe and Thomas opened the innings for Portland and clever running combined with good shot selection saw the pair knock 37 runs in the first four overs.

Weymouth fought back and claimed two wickets as the run rate dropped, but last pair Charlie and David Hinde added 11 runs as they both defended well against some excellent bowling. Portland's innings closed on an accumulated total of 256.

Coach Grant Neven was impressed by both sides and thanked his charges for helping out Weymouth in the field as they were two players short.

He added: "Both sides were a credit to their clubs and played out a thrilling match which was a great advert for youth cricket in the area; well done both teams."

Portland Man-of-the-Match: David Hinde for an outstanding debut behind the stumps.
